

STUDENT LEARNING EXPECTATIONS TK-2nd GRADE

ST. CYPRIAN PARISH SCHOOL STUDENTS ARE:

INFORMED, ACTIVE, FAITHFUL CATHOLICS who . . .

- pray
- have a basic knowledge in Catholic beliefs and tradition
- attend Mass and other Catholic rituals respectfully
- make good choices and treat classmates and teachers courteously
- model faith through actions and words

INTEGRATED INDIVIDUALS who . . .

- take care of personal belongings and school property
- show respect for self and others
- express themselves through the Fine Arts
- participate in school sponsored activities beyond the classroom
- demonstrate healthy decision making in regards to self care
- use self-control when working and playing with others

LIFE-LONG LEARNERS who . . .

- accept new challenges and come to school ready to learn
- show that they are growing in their learning throughout the school year in all subjects
- understand information presented either individually or in a group
- use problem solving and critical thinking skills to learn from practice and experience
- set goals for themselves and evaluate progress
- stay organized, try hard, and finish what they start

EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATORS who . . .

- write clearly and creatively
- project their voice appropriately when speaking
- listen to the teacher and classmates
- follow directions while using technology
- are kind and loving to everyone

GLOBALY AWARE AND RESPONSIBLE CITIZENS who . . .

- respect and accept all cultures
- participate in Service Learning projects
- act as responsible members of the school, Parish, local, & global community
- respect God's creation by taking care of the environment
- share their time, talents, and treasures with others
- assume responsibility for their actions
- share their time, talent, and treasure with others